

Local Knowledge

Companies have immediate access to local, comprehensive, up-to-date labour and employee relations knowledge and information developed and continually updated for the erNavigator by leading specialists.

With country-specific best practices and local legal requirements built-in, you can tackle any labour and employee relations challenges with complete confidence.

Local Laws

Expert insights into local laws, regulations, and local best practice provides erNavigator users with enhanced capabilities to successfully manage their labour and employee relations cases with the perfect combination of leading technologies and comprehensive knowledge

Minimising risk and making compliance and governance easy

With country-specific best practices and local legal requirements built in, users can tackle any labour and employee relations challenge with complete confidence..

Process guidance

erNavigator automatically guides users online to make decisions, follow best practice processes, complete required tasks, generate forms and documentation, and in real time identify non-compliant situations when they arise.

Automatic delivery of information

As users manage their cases online relevant information from the knowledge base is automatically delivered online so there is no longer a need to search for information, look for expensive specialist advice or manually complete forms and letters.

Knowledge Base Includes

- Law Summaries
- Rules & Regulations
- Best Practice Guidance
- Handy Tips
- Training Materials
- Compliant Forms & Documentation
- Best Practice Processes